Agreement Covering the Implementation of a Student Exchange Program between Toyohashi University of Technology and Burapha University

Toyohashi University of Technology and Burapha University, hereby agree to implement a student exchange program based on this Exchange Agreement concluded between the two institutions.

1. The purpose of this exchange program is to provide opportunities for the students of each institution to gain international experience by completing a part of their education in the foreign host institution.
2. Both institutions shall accept not more than five (5) exchange students each for a period of up to one (1) year.
3. Notification about plans for sending or accepting students shall be made by each institution before the agreed deadline, and that acceptance of students shall be guided by the regulations and procedures set by the host institution.
4. The students shall have the status of "Exchange Students" and shall remain as students of the sending institution. The host institution shall award credits to the students who registered classes after they have attended and have attained examination results that are above the prescribed level. Upon request of the home institution, the professor of the host institution who acted as the supervisor of the exchange student shall make a report on the student's performance. However, the home institution still has the right to make the final decision on whether an academic credit shall be awarded to the student or not.
5. Both institutions shall waive the application, registration and tuition fees of the exchange students.
6. Both institutions shall assist the exchange students in accomplishing visa requirements and appropriate immigration documents. Exchange students shall be required to join the health insurance program.
7. Both institutions shall not be obliged to guarantee the exchange students' accommodation. However, the host institution shall be responsible for assisting the students to find a safe and secure accommodation.
8. Except for the application, registration, and tuition fees, all other expenses that would be incurred during the program such as travel expenses, living expenses, etc., shall be borne by each participant. Also, health insurance cost shall be paid by the students.
9. Further details of the specific conditions other than hereby described shall be worked out through ad hoc mutual consultation.
10. This agreement shall be valid from the date last signed below for a period of five years and may be renewed by mutual consent of the two institutions.
