

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING
FOR ACADEMIC EXCHANGE AND COOPERATION BETWEEN
BURAPHA UNIVERSITY, THAILAND
AND
THE UNIVERSITY OF ELECTRO-COMMUNICATIONS, JAPAN

Burapha University, Thailand, and the University of Electro-Communications, Japan, have hereby agreed to conclude this Memorandum of Understanding in order to implement and promote academic exchange and cooperation between the two institutions on the basis of equality and reciprocity.

1. Within fields that are mutually acceptable, the following general forms of cooperation will be pursued:
  - (1) Exchange of academic staff and administrative staff,
  - (2) Exchange of students,
  - (3) Exchange of academic information and publications,
  - (4) Conducting joint research projects and organizing symposia, and
  - (5) Other activities to which both institutions agree.
2. The terms of cooperation for each specific activity under this Memorandum of Understanding shall be mutually discussed and agreed upon by both institutions prior to the initiation of that activity.
3. This Memorandum of Understanding imposes no financial obligation on either institution. Both institutions understand that all financial arrangements will have to be negotiated and will depend on the availability of funds.
4. Both institutions shall not conduct research for the purpose of military use in all activities carried out under this Memorandum of Understanding and shall comply with all applicable export control laws and regulations for all activities carried out under this Memorandum of Understanding.

Neither institution shall use goods, technologies and duplications thereof, which have been obtained under this Memorandum of Understanding, for the purposes of disturbing international peace and security, including any military activities. Nor institution shall permit any third party to use the aforementioned goods, technologies and duplications for the aforementioned purposes.
5. This Memorandum of Understanding shall become effective when signed by the representatives of both institutions, and remain valid for a period of five years. This Memorandum of Understanding may be renewed by mutual agreement prior to the date of expiry. Either institution may terminate this Memorandum of Understanding by giving to the other institution six months' prior written notice. This Memorandum of Understanding may be modified by mutual agreement.

The provision of Article 4 shall survive the termination of this Memorandum of Understanding by nature without limitation of the effective term.
6. This Memorandum of Understanding is made in duplicate originals in English, both being equally authentic. Each Institution shall hold one original.

The terms and conditions of this Memorandum of Understanding are subject to compliance with the parties' laws and policies. In order to perform any obligation under this Memorandum of Understanding, each institution is responsible for oversight and maintenance of their own restrictions related thereto.

This Memorandum of Understanding is intended only to set forth the general understanding of the parties with respect to the subject matter herein, and does not intend to, contractually bind the parties, neither in terms of legal nor financial obligation. The parties may enter into other agreements to achieve the purpose of this Memorandum of Understanding.

MEMORANDUM OF AGREEMENT ON STUDENT EXCHANGE BETWEEN
AND
THE UNIVERSITY OF ELECTRO-COMMUNICATIONS, JAPAN

On the basis of cooperation agreement between Burapha University, Thailand, and the University of Electro-Communications, Japan, have hereby agreed to conclude this Memorandum of Agreement in order to promote student mobility between the two institutions;

1. PERIOD OF STAY

The period of stay of exchange students shall be up to one academic year in the first instance, provided that the period can be extended as mutually agreed upon between the two institutions.

2. FORMAT OF ACCEPTANCE

The formats of acceptance to the Host institution shall be participation in:

1. research activity under the supervision of a faculty adviser
2. courses in graduate and undergraduate programs
3. short-term exchange program

The specific contents for each format shall be stipulated in a separate document.

3. NUMBER OF EXCHANGE STUDENTS

Each institution may send and accept up to five students in any one academic year.

4. SELECTION OF EXCHANGE STUDENTS

The Home institution will be responsible for the selection of its own participating students who have enough ability to understand courses and research guidance offered by the Host institution in terms of not only the contents but also the designated language. The Host institution, however, reserves the right to reject any of the students recommended by the Home institution.

5. FIELD OF STUDY

The field of study of each exchange student must be such that the Host institution can appoint a qualified supervisor or provide appropriate courses.

6. STATUS OF EXCHANGE STUDENTS

The exchange students shall be accepted as non-degree students or equivalent by the Host institution, while they shall retain their status as regular students in graduate or undergraduate program at the Home institution. The exchange students shall comply with the rules of the Host institution.

7. STUDY AND EVALUATION

Each exchange student is expected to determine his/ her research topic or courses taken at the Host institution in consultation with faculty supervisors or academic advisers of the both institutions. The academic performance of each exchange student shall be evaluated in accordance with the rules of the Host institution.

8. ACADEMIC RECORD AND RECOGNITION OF CREDIT

The Host institution shall provide the Home institution with transcripts of results and academic records for each exchange student while at the Host institution. Credits earned at the Host institution are to be awarded by the Home institution towards the student's degree at the Home institution in accordance with rules of the Home institution.

9. TUITION

The exchange students shall pay tuition and other fees to the Home institution during their study at the Host institution. Also, from the perspective of reciprocity, there shall be no requirement for payments of tuition, screening and admission or any other fees to the Host institution.

10. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

Any intellectual property right generated by the exchange students shall belong to the Host institution.

11. ACCOMMODATION

The Host institution shall exert its best endeavors to assist the exchange students in finding their accommodation at a reasonable cost.

12. FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

The exchange students shall be responsible for the financing of their study including defraying of expenses for travel, accommodation and insurance etc. Both institutions shall try its effort to find financial aids available for the exchange students.

In principle, the Home institution or its exchange students shall be responsible for the costs associated with illness or disaster happening to the students themselves. As a means to prepare for these unexpected events, the Home institution shall assist the students to sign up for appropriate insurance coverage that is valid during their study at the Host institution.

13. EXPORT CONTROL

Both institutions shall not conduct research for the purpose of military use in all activities carried out under this Memorandum of Agreement and shall comply with all applicable export control laws and regulations for all activities carried out under this Memorandum of Agreement. Neither institution shall use goods, technologies and duplications thereof, which have been obtained under this Memorandum of Agreement, for the purposes of disturbing international peace and security, including any military activities. Nor institution shall permit any third party to use the aforementioned goods, technologies and duplications for the aforementioned purposes.

This provision shall survive the termination of this Memorandum of Agreement by nature without limitation of effective term.

14. MISCELLANEOUS

If necessary, individual arrangement for the exchange students shall be mentioned in a separate document on the basis of this Memorandum of Agreement.

15. TERMINATION, REVISION AND MUTUAL CONSULTATION

This Memorandum of Agreement may be terminated by either institution with a six-month notice. No applications shall be considered after this notice. However, the institutions will continue to fulfill their obligations with the accepted exchange students until the completion of their study plans.

This Memorandum of Agreement may be revised as mutually agreed upon between the two institutions. In addition to this Memorandum of Agreement, items necessary for student exchange shall be determined through mutual consultation.

16. IMPLEMENTATION

The implementation of this Memorandum of Agreement shall commence on the date of last signature and will remain in effect as long as the MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING FOR ACADEMIC EXCHANGE AND COOPERATION BETWEEN BURAPHA UNIVERSITY, THAILAND, AND THE UNIVERSITY OF ELECTRO-COMMUNICATIONS, JAPAN, remains in effect.
