- j. co-operation in other academic and research activities (e.g. conferences, webinars, workshops);
- k. co-operation on Strategic Business Units (SBUs) in areas of mutual interest;
- l. cultural exchange or sporting activities.

In order to carry out the above-mentioned activities, a detail plan is to be formed into specific activities agreements based on the mutually agree of the parties.

ARTICLE 2: NON-BINDING LEGAL AND FINANCIAL

This Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) is intended only to set forth the general understanding of the parties with respect to the subject matter herein, and does not intend to, contractually bind the parties, neither in term of legal nor financial obligation. The parties may enter into other agreements to achieve the purpose of this MOU.

ARTICLE 3: VALIDITY, AMENDMENT AND TERMINATION

- 3.1 This MOU is valid from the date of last signature by person authorized to bind each of party, for period of five (5) years, and is renewal by the mutual written consent of the parties unless terminated sooner as provided herein.
- 3.2 This MOU may be modified and/or amended through mutual discussion and written consent of the parties. Any agreed modification and/or amendment made during the validity period of the MOU shall be made as annexes to this MOU.
- 3.3 Subject to 3.1, this MOU shall remain in effect until termination by either party. Termination shall be effected by giving the other party at least ninety (90) days prior written notice of its intention to terminate.
- 3.4 Termination shall be without penalty. If this MOU is terminated, neither party shall be liable to the other for any monetary or other losses which may result.

ARTICLE 4: DISPUTE RESOLUTION

In the event of any dispute, controversy, or claim arising out of or relating to this Memorandum of Understanding, the Parties shall endeavour to resolve the matter amicably through good faith negotiations. Should negotiations fail to resolve the dispute within thirty (30) days, other agreed alternative dispute resolution mechanisms will be implemented upon written consent by both parties.

ARTICLE 5: FORCE MAJEURE

Neither Party shall be liable for any failure or delay in performing its obligations under this Memorandum of Understanding if such failure or delay is due to causes beyond its reasonable control, including but not limited to acts of God, natural disasters, war, terrorism, pandemic, or governmental actions. The affected Party shall notify the other Party promptly of such force majeure event and shall take all reasonable steps to resume performance as soon as practicable after the cessation of the force majeure event.

ARTICLE 6: COMPLIANCE WITH LOCAL LAWS

The Parties agree to conduct all activities under this Memorandum of Understanding in full compliance with the applicable laws, regulations, and policies of their respective countries, including but not limited to Zimbabwe and Thailand. Each Party shall obtain any necessary permits, authorizations, or approvals required to carry out their respective obligations and activities contemplated herein.
